

Flag of Belarus

Adopted on June 7, 1995 (first version) and on February 10, 2012 (current flag)

The flag is based on Soviet Belarus flag of 1951. While there is no official interpretation for the colors of the flag, an explanation given by President Alexander Lukashenko is that red represents freedom and the sacrifice of the nation's forefathers, while green represents life.